Clyffe Notes

The Barony of Dun Carraig

UNTO THE POPULACE OF DUN CARRAIG DO RAGNARR AND LYNETTE, BARON AND BARONESS SEND WARMEST
GREETINGS ON THIS CHILLY AUTUMN DAY.

The 5th of October fast approaches and with it Our Coronation as the next King and Queen of Atlantia. While We are happy and excited to be stepping up to serve the Kingdom in this way there is a small amount of sadness as well. This is because We must divest Ourselves of the Baronial Coronets and the responsibilities that go with them for the duration of the reign. This sadness is lessened considerably by the knowledge that the Barony will be in good hands while We must be away. Lady Isolda de Crosthwaite will be stepping up in the role of Vicar for Dun Carraig at Our Coronation.

We ask that everyone please give Lady Isolda as much help and support as possible as she takes on this role for the Barony. The week after Coronation she along with Our armored champion Sir Theron will be leading Dun Carraig and her allies against the Barony of Sacred Stone in this years War of the Wings. There are all sorts of activities from armored combat and rapier to archery, thrown weapons, equestrian, arts and sciences, and youth activities. If anyone has the ability to attend the event and support the Barony We hope that they will do so. While We may have to be even handed and unbiased at the event as the Crown We can still be biased leading up to it while We are still your baronage. So while We are still able to say it....GO SEADOGS!!!!

We look forward to seeing as many of you as possible at Coronation and War of the Wings. We hope to bring Dun Carraig pride while serving the Kingdom as monarchs and will be happy to return to serve you again as Baron and Baroness.

In service to Dun Carraig and Atlantia,

Ragnarr & Lynette
Baron & Baroness

Old Business:

Birthday - went over break-even attendance. No bad words from site. "Donated" 85-90 arrows to the site. Thanks to everybody. Get receipts in.

Practice site in Hughesville - vote was in our favor but they want to double check about insurance.

Uttermost West - finance committee meeting schedules. Budget mostly done. Needs lots of positions filled. Wants info on period art. Cadfan is test cooking dishes. Adriana would like fundraiser lunch if somebody would cook.

New Business:

Event signs: Karl - signs need to eventually be repaired or replaced. Qt will check. Jantus has template for cutting wood. Karl would like "Troll" sign with spinnable arrow.

Amalia has leftover children's activity items. Populace vote approved $40 for tub to store children's activity supplies. May get minister of minors.

Loaner feast gear - we could use more.

Cleaning up Jame's storage area - set a date to pull everything out of shed, have everything brought back & put in order.

Baronial regalia - 1 nice banner, silk, not weather friendly. Other banner looks like giant shield. Baron would like more nice banners, maybe pay somebody. James did silk banner.

2014 Kingdom events need bids, including Unevent, Fall Crown. A lot of stuff is already provided.

At Battle of the Bay (Lochmere & Storvik) - support our neighbors.

Our day-in-the-middle-east event, coming up April 12, 2014, will be "A Day in the Uttermost West," set in Spain, AD 1095. On the next page are some web sites that may be of assistance in preparing for the event. Much of this is actually from the reign of Alfonso X, which is 150 years later than our date.
